

Cookie Policy for cannoncomms.co.uk

This policy describes what cookies are and how they are being used by cannoncomms.co.uk. This website cannoncomms.co.uk is being owned and operated by Cannon Communications Ltd ('we', 'us').

What are cookies?

Cookies are small pieces of data that are stored on a site visitor's browser. They are usually used to keep track of the settings users have selected and the actions they have taken on a site.

We use both cookies that are valid for the duration of your session and expire when closing your browser, and cookies that are stored for a longer period of time in order to remember you and your preferences. More information is below.

What types of cookies do we use?

We use third-party cookies that are accessed and managed by Wix.com in order to:

- 1) Provide a great experience for our customers
- 2) To monitor and analyse the performance, operation and effectiveness of cannoncomms.co.uk on the Wix platform
- 3) To ensure the Wix.com platform is secure and safe to use.

These types of cookies are essential cookies for the operation and delivery of this website.

Storage duration for our essential cookies is below:

- XSRF-TOKEN – duration of session
- Hs – duration of session
- svSession – 6 months
- SSR-caching – 24 hours
- TS* - duration of session
